

Alameda County EMS Corps Helping Inner City Youth

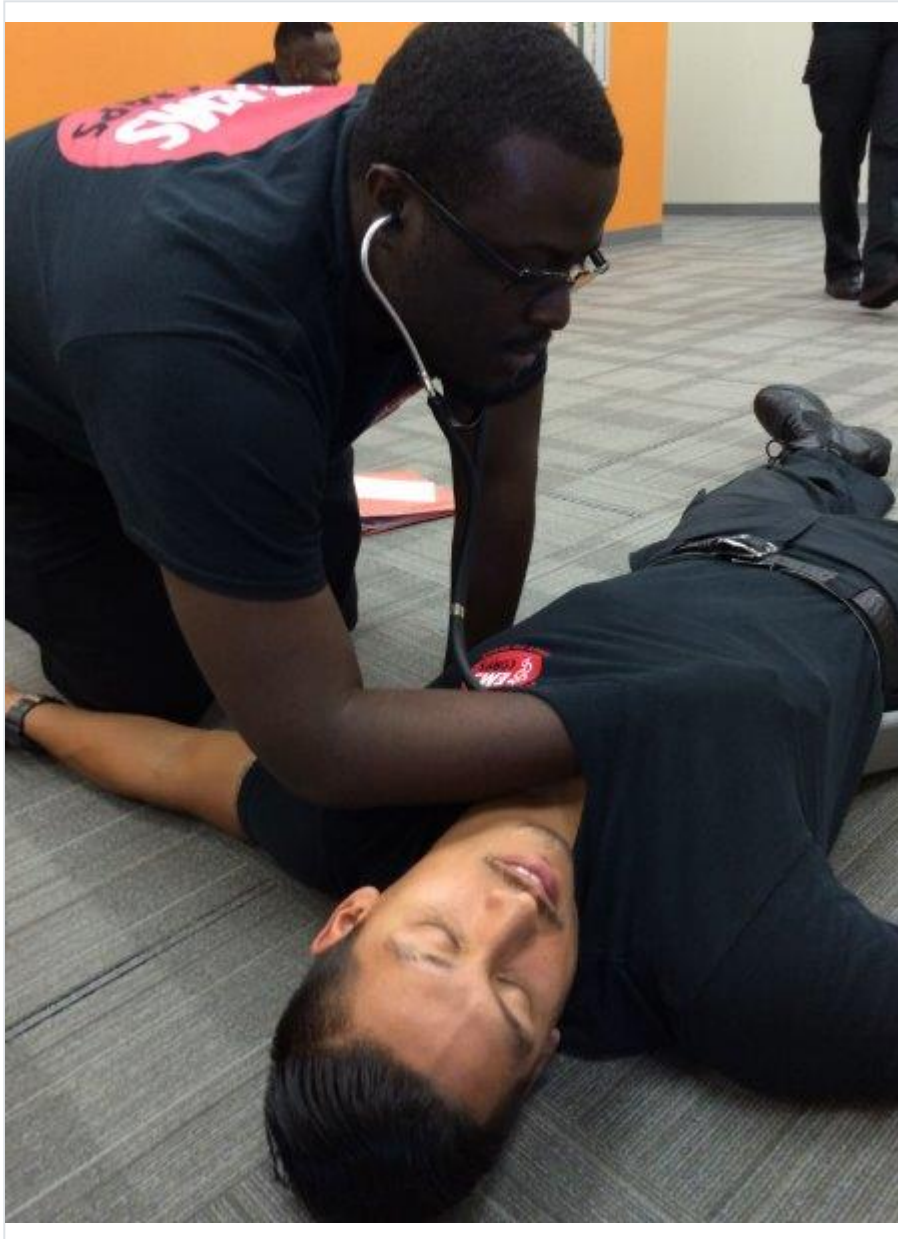

Fri, Sep 25, 2015 |

"The Alameda County EMS Corps students are hard at work, practicing assessments. With the leadership of Jane Smith and great instructors, this inner city youth program in the heart of Oakland is helping low-income men of diverse ethnicities fulfill their dreams. This next class will graduate in November."

Paramedic-Instructor Shawna Whooley said "I love these guys... I have never been so proud to be a part of something as I am with this"
