

AUGUST 19-23, 2019

ALAMEDA COUNTY MEDICAL SURGE WEEK Pulling It All Together

8/19 Medical Surge Capabilities Webinar 10am - 12pm

Audience: Healthcare providers and response partners across the County.

Goal: Gain a better understanding of county operational area response coordination, medical surge resources and capabilities; prepare for Training Workshop Day.

Register at: acmsw2019-webinarregistration.eventbrite.com

8/20 Training Workshop Day Alameda County OES 9am - 4pm

Audience: Clinicians, healthcare facility staff, first responders, emergency managers, disaster response volunteers.

Goal: Engage in scenario-based discussions with healthcare and response partners. Gain familiarity with and train on medical surge supplies.

Register at: acmsw2019-trainingdayregistration.eventbrite.com

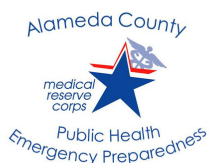

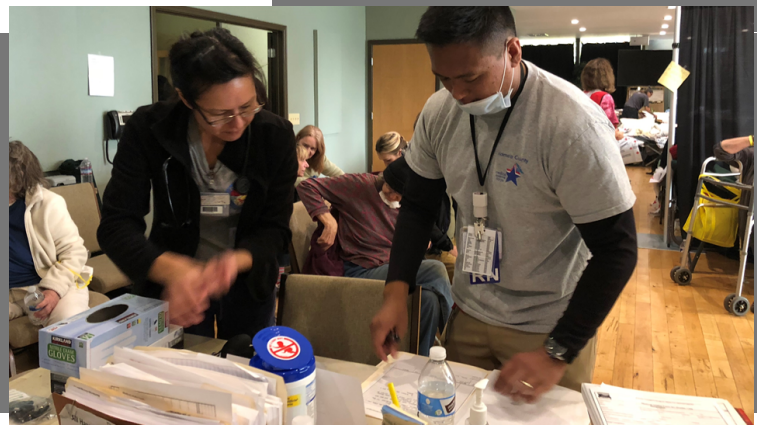

8/21 - 8/23 Limited additional Hands-On Skills Training available at participating clinics. Sign-ups will be taken on 8/20 Training Day.

This is a Can't Miss
County Event
for Disaster
Preparedness &
Response

TRAINING WORKSHOP DAY TO INCLUDE

- Proper Lifting & Carrying
- Hemorrhage Control & Wound Packing
- Disaster Field Triage
- Disaster Medical Surge Kits Familiarization
- First Aid/ Bandaging/ Splinting
- Pediatric Considerations
- Preparedness Bingo Game!

A Week of Training Workshops
Hosted by the Public Health
Systems Preparedness &
Response Program (PHSPR),
EMS and Preparedness Partners
Across Alameda County

Berkeley Medical
Reserve Corps

